Introduction to Woodcarving

SOLD OUT!

Due to popular demand, renowned sculptor Deborah Mills returns to the museum to lead a second introduction to basic woodcarving workshop. Participants in the workshop join education staff in a discussion of selected works found in the exhibitions, A Shared Legacy: Folk Art in America and Also on View: Selections from the Collection, watch a short, instructor-led demonstration, and embark on a hands-on woodcarving project.

No prior experience necessary. All materials included. Light refreshments will be served. Please e-mail publicprograms@folkartmuseum.org for workshop instructions.
